

Curriculum Vitae

Ambassador Sanjay Verma joined the Indian Foreign Service in 1990.

As a career diplomat, his overseas assignments included:

Hong Kong (Economic and Commercial)

Manila (Second Secretary - Press, Political and Consular)

Kathmandu (Counsellor - Press, Information and Culture)

Beijing (Head of the Economic and Commercial Wing)

Dubai, Consul General

Ambassador to Ethiopia, Djibouti and the African Union

Assignments in New Delhi have included the following:

China Desk

Aide to the Spokesperson of the Foreign Ministry

Joint Secretary (DG), Energy Security Division

Chief of Protocol

Sanjay Verma has grown up in India's commercial capital Mumbai. A state rank holder in Higher Secondary from Wilson College he graduated with distinction from Mumbai University's Jai Hind College with an Honours degree in Economics. He holds a Masters in International Studies from the Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi and a Fellowship in International Studies from the University Grant Commission of India.

A University-level hockey player, his current interests are reading, popular Indian culture and films. He is married to Ms. Sangeeta Matta and they have a daughter, Saniya.

...